

Society of Corporate Compliance & Ethics

Compliance and Ethics Magazine

Register before August 17 and save $200!

Volume Four
Number Four
August 2007
Bimonthly

Come to SCCE's Annual Meeting in New Orleans!

September 9-11, 2007

Sheraton New Orleans Hotel
New Orleans, LA

See page 22

Letter from the CEO

SCCE's 6th Annual Compliance & Ethics Institute September 9-11, 2007 | Sheraton New Orleans Hotel

The annual meeting is coming up in a few weeks. This is an important time for networking and education. We have had more interest than ever from those who want to speak, attend, sponsor, or become certified. We are in New Orleans September 9 - 11, and we will be doing a project for Habitat for Humanity on Saturday, September 8th. Your assistance would be greatly appreciated. We have had many compliance meetings in New Orleans over the past 10 years. They have been great hosts. I know they appreciate our return.

Our general session's speakers come from a wide range of strong institutions and they will provide valuable insights. They come from the SEC, World Bank, Kraft Foods, Certified Fraud Examiners Association, Catholic Healthcare West, the University of Texas System, the US Sentencing Commission, Department of Justice, and more. SCCE prides itself on its ability to bring together a broad group of individuals who can speak to unique and important aspects of compliance. The diversity of speakers and perspectives in the breakout is unparalleled. You can see more detail at www.corporatecompliance.com.

Our general session's speakers come from a wide range of strong institutions and they will provide valuable insights. They come from the SEC, World Bank, Kraft Foods, Certified Fraud Examiners Association, Catholic Healthcare West, the University of Texas System, the US Sentencing Commission, Department of Justice, and more.

As you sit at the lunch table with other compliance and ethics professionals, a conversation will come up, and the conversation will become more interesting and focused. Then at some point, someone will share a piece of information, or a thought or an idea that will move the intellectual banter to a new level. Problems will be solved and ideas will be shared that just would not happen without the diversity of the participants. Fraud specialists, investigators, compliance officers, ethicists, academics, vendors, consultants, outside counsel, in-house counsel.... and on and on.... all at the same meeting.... all at the same table.... or break, or dinner, or reception.

SCCE represents the compliance and ethics industry, the compliance and ethics profession, and compliance and ethics programs. Everyone is welcome. Everyone is needed in our effort to improve the compliance profession and improve the implementation of compliance and ethics programs. Our diversity is our strength. I hope to see you there. ■

Your Opinion Please: Conflict of Interest

In our June issue of Compliance & Ethics Magazine, we featured a fictitious conflict-of-interest story about Lois Lane and Clark Kent, who both worked for SuperMan Services Company. We will continue to receive your opinions on "What would you do?" until August 15th. We will feature them in our October issue.

We appreciate your comments and hope to hear from you. E-mail your comments to marlene.robinson@corporatecompliance.org