Is there a need for an Investigation Policy?

Consider the following:

- All organizations experience fraud and misconduct.
- Increased responsibility on Management to prevent, detect and correct unacceptable behaviors.
- Legal requirements to disclose fraud and certain misconduct.
- Risk exposure, identification and mitigation.
- Key element of a sound E&C Culture.
- Makes good sense.

SAMPLE INVESTIGATION POLICY STATEMENT
All allegations of suspected or known violations of the law and company policy and misconduct will be reviewed in a timely manner and, if necessary, investigated at the direction of the Chief Ethics &amp; Compliance Officer to determine the relevant facts and circumstances of the alleged violation or misconduct. Investigation reports will be submitted to Management who is responsible for determining the appropriate corrective and disciplinary actions.

PROVISIONS IDENTIFYING EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITY

Every employee has a duty to report known or suspected violations of company policy, even when personally involved in the violation.

Employees are expected to cooperate with internal auditors and investigations by providing truthful accounts and relevant documentation in response to questions and information requests.

Employees who fail to cooperate, or otherwise impede an internal audit or investigation, may be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the company's disciplinary action policy.

7

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

PROVISIONS FOR INTAKE

Reports of known or alleged misconduct should be reported to an immediate supervisor or others in Management.

A Helpline exists to provide for and, if requested, anonymous reporting of know or suspected violations of the law or company policy and procedures. (List Help Line number and Web address of any On-Line reporting tools)

Management personnel are responsible for notifying Ethics & Compliance, Legal, or Human Resources upon receipt of a report of alleged misconduct.

8

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

PROVISIONS FOR INTAKE

- There will be no reprisals or retaliation against any employee for reporting, in good faith, a suspected or known violation.
- We will strive to maintain the confidentiality of the source. Additionally, reports can be made on an anonymous basis, where local law permits.
- Concerns about accounting, internal accounting controls, auditing matters or other concerns can also be reported by mailing the concern to the Board of Directors or the Audit Committee at the address listed below.

Investigation Scenario #1 – Allegation of Inspection Fraud

An anonymous reporter stated that a coworker, Greg Doe, regularly falsifies inspection reports. The reporter said the employee leaves the work area for long periods of time and can't possibly be meeting the standard of part inspections documented in the department's test and acceptance procedure. The reporter is really concerned because the parts being tested go into highly sensitive medical test equipment. The reporter noted that potentially defective parts incorporated into the medical test equipment could provide a false reading, which could result in costly and unnecessary medical procedures or even worse fail to accurately identify a patient's medical condition.

Effective Internal Investigations

Effective internal investigations are essential to a sound Ethics and Compliance Culture

- Conducting internal investigations is an acquired skill
- Planning the essential steps
- Asking the right questions and eliciting responses
- Sorting relevant from irrelevant details
- Making credibility determinations
- Identifying others needed to support the investigation
- Documenting your actions
- Closing the loop with stakeholders

11

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Fundamental Propositions

- Fair treatment of all employees
- Earn and maintain trust
- Guard against employee retaliation
- Respect confidentiality
- Consistent, uniform, thorough process
- Independent and objective investigators
- Do no harm

Investigation Scenario #2 – Allegation of Unfair Treatment

An anonymous reporter stated Jessica Smith, who works in Contracts, is receiving preferential treatment from her supervisor Dan Jones. Mr. Jones allows Ms. Smith to arrive late for work and never disciplines her while others in the department are disciplined for arriving only 2 minutes late. One employee was even written up for arriving late one day after a major traffic accident. Many employees had trouble getting to work that day. "It is unfair and someone needs to look into this and stop it" demanded the reporter. The reporter also stated that Ms. Smith received a merit pay increase that was twice the percentage received by others in the department because Ms. Smith is having an affair with Mr. Jones. Ms. Smith is lazy and does not work at the same level as others in the department. Others feel required to pick up her slack. The reporter is "sick and tired of the way things are being done in this department" and threatened to call the State Department of Employment Discrimination if this unfair treatment is not stopped.

Report Intake – The Five W's*

Who

- was involved?
- was present?
- may have knowledge?
- may have had a similar experience?
- did you talk to about the incident?

What

- happened exactly?
- was said by those involved or witnesses?
- actions did people take?
- was the reaction of witnesses?

What (cont')

- did you do?
- do you want to see happen?
- else should the investigator know?

When

- did the incident occur (day and time)?
- did you talk to others about it?

Where

- did the incident occur?

Why

- are you reporting?

Creating an Investigation Plan

What should be investigated?

- Identify and understand
- Is the allegation true?
- Stop and correct misconduct
- Tip of the Iceberg
- Need to expand investigation
- Regroup

19

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Creating an Investigation Plan

When should the investigation commence?

- Timing may be critical!
- Is there rampant misconduct?
- Minimize collaboration among offenders
- Send the right message to all stakeholders
- Keep the momentum going

Investigation Scenario #3– Allegation of Supplier Corruption

A reporter who stated she was a purchasing department employee believes that one of the company's suppliers, NeverFail, may be providing kickbacks to her supervisor, Bill Themm. She said her supervisor just returned from a business trip to the supplier's site and shared with her the details of an extravagant dinner meeting that included expensive wine, caviar, lobsters and Kobe beef. "He even took his wife on the business trip and they were treated to a 1st Rate Broadway Show that I can't even get tickets to go see", she stated. She also noted that Mr. Themm has received mail from NeverFail that has "Personal and Confidential" markings on the envelope.
