SCCE's 2010 Annual Compliance and Ethics Institute Terms and Conditions

To ensure your exhibiting experience at SCCE's Annual Compliance and Ethics Institute is successful, read the following rules and regulations carefully. By submitting an exhibitor registration form you agree to abide by these and any other rules and regulations set forth for this event.

Booth Space Assignments

Space assignments are based on a priority point system. Space assignments are based on the following criteria:

- Participation in past SCCE meetings
- Sponsorship of past SCCE meetings
- SCCE Corporate Membership
- Date SCCE receives your exhibitor application (tie-breaker)

A priority point list is created prior to each year's space assignments in descending order from highest point total. The company with the highest point total will be assigned first, followed by the consecutive companies in descending point total order for those exhibit registrations received by May 3, 2010. After May 3, exhibit space is assigned on a first-come, first-served basis (as orders are received).

Exhibit orders are accepted at any time as space allows; however, early reservations receive more advance publicity.

Exhibit Staff

Each 10' x 10' exhibit space includes two exhibit staff badges. These badges provide access to the exhibit hall only. All exhibit staff must register and wear their badges for admission into the exhibit hall. Lunch is NOT provided, but continental breakfasts, refreshment breaks, and the receptions are held within exhibit hall, and exhibit staff is welcome to the served food and beverages during these events. Additional exhibit staff badges can be purchased for $350 per person. Exhibitors are entitled to purchase up to two full conference registrations at the discounted rate of $600 each. Name badge and registration forms must be received by SCCE no later than August 23, 2010, to ensure badges are printed prior to the event. Discounted registration forms will be included in your exhibitor services kits.

Payment

A 50% deposit is required for each 10' x 10' booth space ordered. Remaining balance must be paid no later than August 23, 2010.

Failure to Occupy

Space not occupied by the close of installation (unless previous written arrangements are made) will be forfeited by the exhibitor. SCCE may resell, reassign or use the space. If display equipment is available, SCCE may choose to have the exhibit erected at the exhibitor's expense. The exhibitor is not relieved of the obligation to pay the full exhibit price.

Meeting Cancellation

It is mutually agreed that in the event of cancellation of the 2010 Compliance and Ethics Institute due to acts of God, war, terrorism, natural disaster, strikes, civil disorder, curtailment of transportation, government regulations, or other emergencies making it inadvisable, illegal or causes which would prevent its scheduled opening or continuance, then and thereupon, this agreement will be terminated. SCCE shall determine an equitable basis for the refund of such consideration of expenditures and commitments already made.

Cancellation of Booth Space

SCCE must be notified of exhibitor cancellation in writing. A cancellation fee of $1,000 per 10' x 10' exhibit space will be charged to an exhibitor who cancels their contract before August 23, 2010. No refunds will be made after this date.

Fire Protection

All exhibits must conform to fire laws, health regulations, electrical codes, and other ordinances of the local fire department. All materials used in the exhibit hall must be flameproof and fire resistant. All materials are subject to the inspection of the local fire department and their regulations shall govern. Any exhibits or parts thereof found not to be fireproof may be ordered dismantled. Enclosed ceilings are not permitted in the exhibit hall. The hotel reserves the right to dismantle any exhibit it feels does not conform to the fire laws, health regulations, electrical codes, and other ordinances of the local fire department.

Security

SCCE will employ a reputable security service and will take reasonable precautions to safeguard exhibitors' property. However, the SCCE, the Hotel and decorating company assume no liability whatsoever for the loss, theft or damage, of property belonging to any exhibitor, their agents, employees, business invitees, visitors or guests. Every exhibitor should have a certificate of insurance for general liability in their possession at the conference.
