Symptor	ns of Low Ethical Capacity
	Ethics and compliance are treated as a requirement When an ethical issue arises, you hear " this is not our problem ; let's call the compliance team" There is a tendency to assign blame (e.g., a few bad apples)
	Employees believe it's more important to fit in than to do the right thing There is no time to address pressure points, grey areas, and implications for behavior Conversations about voice, diversity and inclusion, and ethics are shallow
0,20185	 People believe that is better to keep low and quiet HR or Compliance tell employees "are you sure you are happy here?" after a report / complaint is filed People are reminded about the futility of their voice (e.g., what do you gain from speaking up? etc.) Employees have no idea how the information they share is used
